

Call to Worship

We come to worship the risen

Lord:

Bringing peace into our fear:

Come living Jesus

Bringing hope into our despair:

Come living Jesus

Bringing love into our world of hatred, dissention and prejudice:

Come living Jesus

Hymn: CH4 432

“How often, we like Thomas”

How often, we like Thomas,
need proof before we trust.
Lord Jesus, friend of doubters,
come speak your truth to us.
We long to feel your presence,
and gain new faith from you,
to find, without our seeing,
the blessing Thomas knew.

You always stand among us,
no doors can lock you out.
Your presence reassures us,
though we still live with doubt.
As present-day disciples,
whose lives by sin are flawed,
we want to come believing,
and cry: “My Lord, my God!”

The image shows the interior of a church with a high, vaulted ceiling. A balcony with a decorative blue railing runs across the middle of the sanctuary. On the balcony, there is a large wooden organ. The pews are arranged in a semi-circle, with blue chairs in the front rows. A piano is visible in the foreground. The walls are yellow, and there are several stained glass windows. The text "Prayer of Approach" is overlaid in the center of the image.
